Attack Non-Union Men.
 Serious troubles arising out of the recent strikes inaugurated in Brooklyn, N. Y., by the union blacksmiths, are occurring. At one place a gang of the strikers entered a non-union shop and severely beat a number of the non-union men employed there.

Cures When Doctors Fail.
 Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at R. C. Hardwick.

Fatal Fight.
 At Elberfield, Indiana, Albert Thompson was shot and fatally wounded by Tom Jones, of St. Louis.
 The difficulty occurred over a woman, whom it is claimed both men were in love with. Jones made his escape.

For Those Who Live on Farms.
 Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes:
 "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at R. C. Hardwick.

New Military Company.
 A new military company has been organized at Clinton, Ky., and was mustered into State service by Major J. Embury Allen, of Lexington, a few days ago. The company is about fifty strong.

A Prominent Lawyer
 Of Greenville, Ill., Mr. C. E. Coon, writes: "I have been troubled with biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, constipation, etc., for several years. I sought long and tried many remedies, but was disappointed until I tried your Dr.
 Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I can cheerfully recommend it to any suffering from above complaints," at all druggists.

Alleged Gold Brick Agents Caught.
 Two men giving their names as C. Robert, a miner, of Pasadena, Cal., and Charles J. Jerome, of Philadelphia, alleged gold brick agents, were arrested and placed in jail at Vincennes, Ind.

Mark Twain says: "It is not always easy to stand prosperity—another man's, I mean." It is still harder to see your friends and neighbors rejoicing in good health, while you don't even dare to eat boiled cabbage. Take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep your stomach and bowels in order. Eat what you want and envy no one. Sold by all druggists.

Will Sue For a Million.
 The State of Kentucky has filed suit at Louisville against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for one million dollars back taxes.

The Octopus.
 One tentacle gripping the stomach, another tickling the heart, a third fumbling around the liver, tightening their hold every hour—dyspepsia is the monster that does all this and worse. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will make it let go mighty quick. All druggists.

Passenger Train Wrecked.
 The Southern passenger train between Knoxville and Asheville was wrecked and one man killed and a number of others injured.

"LE GOLF" PLEASURES FRANCE.

Game Has Taken Strong Hold on Followers of Fashion There.

"Le golf" ought soon to have a place in French dictionaries. They have golf clubs now at Deauville, Dieppe, Caumes, Compiègne, Biarritz, Versailles and St. Germain. The Compiègne, Versailles and St. Germain ones are highly fashionable, and will probably afford members with literary tastes materials for novels, dealing with those passions that lead to the divorce court. Did I say probably? The French word "forement" might be more suitable. Those high flyers of fashion cannot always be enthusiastic about golf. The ladies will try to attract attention from the ball to themselves.
 They will make the game a tournament d'elegance so far as they are concerned.

The Versailles or La Bouille links, says the London Truth, are in a picturesque outlet of the Palatine city of Le Grand Monarque. A pretty chalet affords shelter on wet days.
 Around it in fine weather are grouped chairs, on which tea and cakes—with liqueurs, of course—are often laid out.
 The wide windows of the chalet command fine vistas. La Bouille is patronized by the Rothschilds, the Castellanes, the Labaudys, and those young duchesses who make such rows at the Pavilion d'Armenonville. The St. Germain club has the misnomer of L'Ermitage, and is just outside the old royal town where the last English king of the Stuart line vegetated in exile. The links are on the training ground of M. Buisson, who prepared horses there for the steeplechases, and the obstacles presents must be trying to poor players.

Golf is dethroning lawn tennis.
 That game and cricket are now relegated to the bourgeois of third-rate watering places, and, in the neighborhood of Paris, to those who have villas at Asnières and Bois Colombes. The road to La Bouille on the days of grand matches reminds one of that to Hurlingham when the West End went in for pigeon shooting. Private carriages, drags, mail phaetons and stylish traps howl along. Should the theater turn out badly, there is the resource of un tour de valse in "le hall" of the chalet, which is really a very fine ball room.
 The dancing goes on to the gloaming, and romantic situations arise.

Serious Runaway.
 Fulton, Ky., May 11.—While Smith Fields, his two daughters and sister, Mrs. Mary Collins, were out driving the team got scared at some lumber, which was piled up near the street, and ran away, throwing the occupants out and hurting them all.
 Mrs. Collins is badly hurt, her collar bone being broken. Mr. Fields, who is president of the City National Bank, was badly bruised up; both legs are hurt and one arm considerably mashed. The span of horses are some Mr. Fields recently bought in Lexington, Ky., paying $1,000 for the pair, and are very fine. The double seated, rubber tired trap was torn completely up.
